CEO's Message...

Occasionally, we are asked about political positions and thoughts on political matters. Our position has always been that we support the Italian American community on a whole. The community will have many different people, and they have many different philosophies. Some of our members are passionate about certain political ideologies. I'm sure this is true for those in any organization. We are primarily a business organization with heavy cultural Italian American overtones.

With this said, we support our Italian, Italian American and Italian supporting community regardless of politics. In a nutshell, we support what's best for our members and their businesses. At the end of the day, most of our members are advocating for the Italian American community beyond politics. And of course, we certainly would not support anything that hurts our members or community. The goal is to create solidarity in our community, relationships with other groups, to have a voice that can be heard, and to generate financial strength among our members. And of course, we'll have a lot of great times along the way.

Buon Natale, Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. I am hoping 2026 is a prosperous year for everyone.

Sincerely, Pete

Christmas in Rockefeller Center
